

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

2143

=1950=

Glimpse-o-Glee Gladiolus Gardens

Announce their Baker's Dozen—of intriguing bulbs that are truly of the finest money can buy. These bulbs are all over an 1 1-4 inch in diameter, and the majority of them will produce two or more bulbs by fall. Here's the bulbs we recommend for your garden:

BURMA—Heavily ruffled deep rose, large blooms, a mid-season bloomer. Opens from seven to 10 perfectly placed blooms at one time.

BLACK OPAL—A sensational, medium sized blossom, mid-season bloomer. Opens up to ten well-placed blooms—excellent Show flower.

BLUE BEAUTY—Tall, large flowered, straight growing medium blue. The best of the shade.

BADGER BEAUTY—Soft lavender, large mid-season bloomer, with a creamy throat. Dependable performer.

BUCKEYE BRONZE—Large, mid-season bloomer of a burning bronze. Distinctive, our most unusual and beautiful Gladiola. A consistent show winner.

ABBU HASSEN—A beautiful, clear dark blue. Grows very tall, correctly spaced blooms on a straight spike appear mid-season and are medium sized.

ELIZABETH THE QUEEN—The most outstanding of all the lavenders. Beautifully ruffled blooms. Our choice as the most beautiful, the blooms are Giant in size.

GIANT—Nice ruffled deep rose red. One of the first to attract the gardeners and flower lovers who visit the blooming patch.

IRAK—A clear, gray smokey. Very gorgeous and unusual with large blooms, a little later than the others, and a very tall ruffled variety.

KING TAN—Another striking and unusual flower of rosy tan. Always straight, a good exhibitor and cut variety.

MARGARET BEATON—Pure white with scarlet throat feather. An unusually long flowered head—one of the tallest—and an outstanding beauty with large blooms well placed.

POET'S DREAM—Here's the glad for you who appreciate real beauty. Cool lavender with creamy throat, intensely ruffled. A long spike of medium sized blooms.

VAGABOND PRINCE—This rich mahogany brown smokey with its scarlet blotch opens 8 to 10 perfect blooms on a tall spike. A variety that has been sold for some time but still an outstanding favorite.

Any of the above bulbs are priced at 15 cents each, or assorted any 10 bulbs $1.00.

GLIMPSE-O-GLLEE MIXTURE—A glorious assortment of outstanding bulbs, of the above and other exceptional gladiolus. Our choice at 20 for $1.00. Large bulbs. No order accepted for less than $1.00.

GLIMPSE-O-GLLEE GARDENS
P. O. BOX 25
PRINSBURG, MINNESOTA

CLIMPS-O-GLEE GARDENS

Announce their Baker's Dozen—of insignificant bulbs that are truly of the finest money can buy. These bulbs are all over an 1-4 inch in diameter, and the majority of them will produce two or more bulbs by fall. Here's the bulbs we recommend for your garden:

IRMA—Heavily variegated deep rose, large flowers, a mid-season bloomer. Opens from seven to 10 perfectly placed flowers at one time.

BLACK OVAL—A sensational, medium sized flower, mid-season bloomer. Opens up to ten well-placed flowers—exquisite Snow Flower.

BLUE BEAUTY—Tall, large flowers, mid-season bloomer, growing medium blue. The best of the bunch.

MARGARET BEAUTY—Soft lavender, large mid-season bloomer, with a strong, sweet, Deodorable perfume.

HUGHES BROWN—Large mid-season bloomer of a lighter shade. Distinctive, our most unusual and beautiful. A constant show.

ARABIAN BLOSSOM—A beautiful, deep blue, grows very tall, certainly a great flower, and a strong, sweet perfume, mid-season and are medium sized.

ELIZABETH TUCKER—The most outstanding of all the lavender. Beautifully variegated flowers, our choice as the most beautiful, the flowers are clear in color.

CLINT—The perfect deep red. One of the first to attract the eye. Colors and flowers never fade the flowering patch.

IRIS—A clear, early, mid-season. Very fragrant and unusual with large flowers a little later than the others, and a very tall variegated variety.

KING TALK—Another striking and unusual flower of very late. Always attracts a good number and are very early.

MARGARET BEAUTY—The white with perfect, perfect. An early, mid-season flower, one of the tallest—and an outstanding beauty with large flowers well placed.

PORTS DISCOVERY—The kind of flower who attracts the eye. Good flowers, mid-season, flowers, flowers. A very early of medium sized flowers.

VAGABOND WHITE—This white flower is a very early, mid-season flower, one of the tallest. A very early of medium sized flowers.

Any of the above bulbs are priced at 15 cents each, or as noted any 10 bulbs $1.00.

CLIMPS-O-GLEE GARDENS—A sensational, mid-season, of outstanding bulbs of the above and other exceptional varieties. Our choice of 20 for $1.00. Large bulbs. New order accepted for less than $1.00.